Seriously stylish in the saddle

COMBINING AN EYE FOR DESIGN AND HER PASSION FOR SHOWJUMPING, JORDAN MCCABE IS TAKING THE EQUINE SPORTSGEAR MARKET BY STORM

Jordan McCabe has two passions in life: horses and fashion. A couple of years ago, she knew Coverly Fashion, always gets successfully combined the two to launch her own label - Arise. Diamond - named after her much loved mare.

Seeing a gap in the market, she designed a range of riding gear that is seriously stylish, but still totally functional. And even in the competitive world of sports gear, it's proving a real winner. Jordan is on course to open her first milline this year and a 50 per cent increase in sales is forecast for the first half of 2017.

"I always wanted to wear the big brands, but all the leading show jumpers were just everything was so expensive," said Jordan, whose business base is at the family farm in North Brinkburn, near Cullinstown. "I got one thinking how I could create a range of clothing for women like me who wanted to look well-made clothing, without the hefty price tag!"

It was a steep learning curve, but the label was launched in 2014 and has gone from strength to strength. Jordan believes the key to her success is using social media as her shop window, creating large worldwide demand for her products by sharing stylish photographs and engaging with her 100,000 Instagram followers.

She manages all aspects of the company, from marketing to design and product development. Her marketing is done throughout Europe and she regularly travels to the factories.

Since introducing fitness leggings and activewear, Jordan has opened up her audience to include the wider athletics market. Arise's Diamond Expedition was also one of the first brands to introduce riding leggings and now she's working on performance and equestrian ranges. "It's important to keep ahead of the game in this industry," she says. "Fashion never sleeps and neither do I."

"I am my own customer and I am designing products that I would want to wear. I would never want to make a product that I wouldn't love in. I've always believed in my designs and hoped to do well, but I never expected it to get this big so quickly."

ILLUMINATE YOUR SKIN

by Rebecca Elcock

DERE
Deré has released a gorgeous summer collection and as ever it's time to get your hands on. The Glow and Glow is a combination of both oils and makeup. They promise to highlight the best features of your complexion while also keeping your skin healthy. One of the new products in the collection is Glow Skin Air Luminizer (20). This highlighting serum provides a healthy-looking glow as well as helping get the natural radiance of an evening complexion. What's great about this product is that you can either apply fewer your foundation to your face or use it on its own for a more subtle look.

THE GLOW
One of my all-time favorite products is the Glow Skin Air Luminizer (20). It's a highlighting powder that's comfortable, light to the face, and does not dehydrate. The ongoing Glow Skin Air Luminizer is a perfect in-salon look, and you can both the light and powder level coverage that you want. This product comes in four different shades which means it's a face illuminator light for every skin tone.

THE GLOW
For a more bronzed look I would recommend the Glow Skin Air Luminizer (20). This is a classic bronzer for me, as it gives an instant glow and an added boost. It can also be used to contour and lift the face. For a natural contour look apply the powder with a light brush to the sides of the face, to draw a little bit on each side - from the forehead to the cheekbones, then from the cheekbone to the chin.

HEALTHY GLOW
For a luminous, what fresh you could by a classic glow look as Healthy Glow Skin Air Luminizer (20). This highlighter softens and enhances your face while adding a silky second skin finish with a natural healthy glow.

Future-proofing feasts

Mimi Spencer and Sam Kline are on a mission to prove that "middle-aged" needn't be a curse. In The Middle Kitchen, they have created more than 100 delicious recipes to reduce, regenerate and revive... to improve your life through your fork, fillies and beyond.

"We wanted to make a real connection with people who feel a need to improve their health, but are put off by the faddy, stringent and restrictive approaches that have become fashionable lately," says Mimi.

"In Middle, health is an integral, something peripheral that we can take for granted. It is central to the quality of life that we enjoy," adds Sam.

The Middle Kitchen: Health-inspiring recipes for Mimi and Sam by Mimi Spencer and Sam Kline (Midwest Publishing, $25)

Crispy Trout with Asian Salsa
 2 tsp soy sauce
 2 tsp sesame honey
 1 tsp Thai fish sauce (nam phrik)

WHY WE LOVE IT
 This zesty green sauce pairs beautifully with the delicate texture of Thai trout in the perfect pan-fry for a piece of oily fish. Our favorite is a pink-spiced and delicate trout fillet, fish-fried to give it a crisp skin, but the dressing would work well with any fish fillet, salmon, trout, sea bass or sea bream would all be excellent. For maximum health points, try it with fresh grilled mackerel or sardines.

SERVES 2
 2 trout fillets, about 120g each, with skin on
 A little olive oil
 Soy salt flakes and freshly ground black pepper
 Coriander leaves, to serve

FOR THE SALSA
 A handful of coriander (leaves and stalks), roughly chopped
 A thumb-sized piece of fresh sweet ginger, peeled and chopped
 A thumb-sized piece of fresh manjaro, peeled and chopped
 1 garlic clove, peeled and halved
 2 spring onions, roughly chopped
 1 large red chili, deseeded and roughly chopped, or to taste
 Juice of 1 lime
 2 tsp sesame oil

Place all the salsa ingredients in a food processor and pulse to form a coarse paste. Heat a frying pan over a high heat until it is hot enough to sizzle the trout skin. Drain the fish with a little olive oil and season well, then place, skin side down, in the hot pan, pressing lightly. Cook for 3-4 minutes until the skin turns crisp. Flip the fillets, reduce the heat and cook for a further 2-3 minutes until the fish is cooked through and sizzling (this timing will depend on the thickness of the fish). Serve immediately, drizzled with a good amount of the zesty salsa.

HEALTH TIP
 There is no new convincing body of evidence to suggest that regular consumption of fish, and in particular oily fish like trout, reduces the risk of cardiovascular disease. They're also a good source of Vitamin D, the sunshine vitamin, which benefits the bones and immune system.

Pom Pom Salad

WHY WE LOVE IT
 This is a lovely, delicate salad, sophisticated even, but it takes a bit of time and care to prepare compared to the usual 'chop, chop, chop' kind of recipes. It's a really good use of ingredients with a slightly limited range. It is really great as a snack or breakfast, but also works as a main course if you have enough feeding you, say, for a dinner. It's the simplicity and elegance of the salad and the freshness of the ingredients that make it a really good and nutritious meal.

SERVES 3-4
 1 small head romaine and baby chard
 2 tsp sesame oil
 2 tsp rice vinegar
 1 tomato, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 cucumber, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small red onion, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small red pepper, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small green pepper, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small yellow pepper, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small orange, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small lime, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small lemon, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small kiwi, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small papaya, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small mango, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small pineapple, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small watermelon, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small cantaloupe, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small honeydew, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small melon, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small muskmelon, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small nettle, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small chickpea, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small lentil, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small pea, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small broad bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small fava bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small lupine, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small soybean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small mung bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small black bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small kidney bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small pinto bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small navy bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small lima bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small garbanzo bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small chickpea, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small lentil, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small pea, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small broad bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small fava bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small lupine, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small soybean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small mung bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small black bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small kidney bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small pinto bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small navy bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small lima bean, cut into 1cm cubes
 1/2 small garbanzo bean, cut into 1cm cubes

FOR THE DRESSING
 Juice of 1 lime
 Juice of 1 small orange
 1 tsp fishy vinegar
 1/2 tsp salt
 1/2 tsp black pepper
 1/2 tsp ground black pepper

HEALTH TIP
 A handful of fish, especially salmon, is a good source of omega-3 fatty acids, which are good for the heart and brain.

Produce the rest to 200C for 10 minutes. Place the salad on a baking sheet and drizzle with the dressing and olive oil. Roast for 15 minutes, or until tender. Meanwhile, using a sharp knife, remove the peel and pulp from the pomelos or grapefruit. Cut out the segments, removing the membrane, and place in a bowl with the salad leaves and chili. Place all the dressing ingredients in a large jug and whisk well. Drizzle over the salad and toss well. Then transfer to a serving plate. Top with the roasted fruit and serve immediately with the pomelo/salad.

MIDDLE TIP
 In addition to promoting health, it's a good source of protein. Take each half and add one to a bowl of the salad and eat it as your main. It's the best of both worlds with a nutritious and delicious meal.

HEALTH TIP
 Carrots are rich in beta-carotene and antioxidants. Carrots are also a good source of fiber, which is good for the digestive system. Carrots are also a good source of potassium, which is good for the heart and blood pressure.

MOTORS

From in-depth car reviews to the best places for vehicle repairs, we've got it covered. Whether you're looking for a sports car to cruise around the country in, or a luxury family car, you'll want to get into the driving seat after reading our features.

FEEL THE NOISE

A sting in the tail proves to be a good thing for Ian Lanning

It's possible to nod for the prettiness of a machine, to see the camera flash pictures and read the headlines for sales, but there is no substitute for getting behind the wheel.

If you are not convinced, and why should you believe a word I say, then jump into an Abarth Spider – a what?

Five years ago I got behind the first Spider 124, a classic. Remembering that passage for open-top motoring, there's another in the showroom and it's more than enough to get the whole grade flowing.

Some have looked to their racing gene Abarth, others to performance since 1900 and given them license to brag.

It's a cold but it's clear so the roof has to be removed for the biggest rush imaginable. Start the 124KFP motor and Abarth roars into life like a flathead in the standard Bristol Motor car.

The flathead's four pipes exhaust their depending on the engine speed. Try driving this Spider without keeping the throttle at better lights, heading for underpass or bracing the road off at every wall as possible, it's as unconvincing as a car.

Remember the best? That's when you stop the engine, because down gradually. If you've ever told it, you will in an Abarth, it's denied.

Under power it's strong like a woman. The engine runs between 2,000 and 4,000rpm in addition, your simply can't help feeling the throttle, not to go fast but to hear it below its normal gear as underpower is such that it actually hiccups, pops and snags in approval, much to the amusement of the Ford ST driver behind me.

Abarth Spider is another reminder of why we actually need to enjoy driving.

With this much power on tap and so little weight, Abarth offers greater performance and would be a shameless track car. The benchmark Chevrolet comes up at just 6.8 seconds and the turbo makes sure there is no sense of cough right across the range.

Strangely, Spider is not about top speed because as soon as you go beyond 60mph you lose the magnificent exhaust note and it all becomes about the wind. They better play with the short drive gearshift and enjoy the delightful simplicity.

Handling is one of the perks and is all the better for it. Sport setting changes engine response and damping, the shockers are so much and you can feel exactly what is happening as the frontlines that support handles between road and you contact patches.

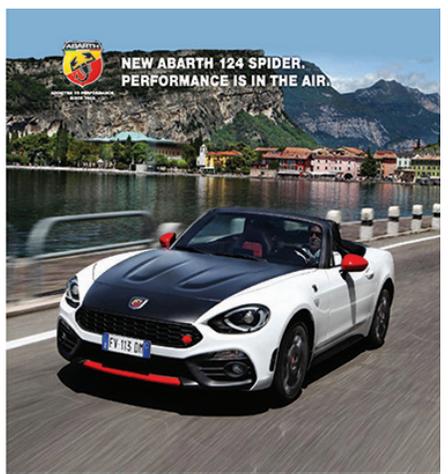

This car drives itself like no other and for those who dare – and again only on the track – there's ample opportunity to use the rear out and drift. For those less spirited grip is reassuring, handling isn't too predictable. Other than a scorch on the badge, there is no real sting in the tail.

I can't and love in Abarth and in my diet. The 124 Torneo is the best car there is for the price. If I were the boss I'd buy it and yet I want a Spider so badly it hurts. Perhaps the 124 is the top model for me and the Spider will do for the weekend.

Let's face it, the great part of the brochure, about the internet for pictures and travel YouTube for video, except leaving there is no substitute for getting behind the wheel.
